

REMARKS

Revised Amendments to the Specification

In the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment, the Examiner requested renumbering of the specification paragraph numbers of the Amendments to the Specification as follows:

The new paragraphs submitted have numbers, e.g., [0014], which are already in the original specification, and are thus, improper. These new/additional paragraphs must have different numbers than those already present in the specification, e.g. [0013.1], [0013.2] - [0013.5].

See Continuation Sheet (PTOL-324). As requested by the Examiner, Paragraphs [0014]-[0018] have been revised to read [0013.1], [0013.2] - [0013.5] so as to not conflict with existing specification paragraph numbers.

In light of the above revised amendment to the specification, Applicants respectfully request entry of the above amendment.
